Feedback

1. Purpose of feedback:

- To move learning forwards
- To target the specific learning gaps that pupils exhibit
- To identify and correct errors and resolve misconceptions
- To support all pupils in reflecting on their learning
- To inform all pupils of their progress or achievement
- To inform planning

2. Feedback must be:

- Accurate and actionable
- Succinct and accessible to all
- Timely and specific (focused on the task, subject and/or self-regulation strategies)
- Acted upon by pupils during lesson time wherever possible

3. Feedback must not be:

- Excessive
- Intrusive
- Focused on learners' personal characteristics+6
- Vague

4. Feedback should be a balance of:

- Individualised, whole class, group and peer to peer

5. Remote learning

Feedback is equally a vital part of remote learning and should mirror in-school practice.

Guidance if using symbols and colours to identify common themes:

A = Assisted (TA or teacher support)
